The many friends of Wayland I. Dickerman, who has been critically ill at Atlanta, Ga., will be much gratified to hear that he is improving daily. He is still very weak, but his recovery is now confidently expected.

New goods arriving in wholesale quantities at Kirby's popular jewelry store to keep pace with the demands of a constant stream of buyers of Christmas gifts. The stock is a fine one to pick from—so they all say.

A Christmas dinner will be served at the New Haven house to-morrow evening at the regular price, one dollar, between the hours of 6 and 8 p. m.
Entire tables, or single seats, will be reserved if spoken for in advance at the office.

The foreign mail received at the New Haven postoffice yesterday was the heaviest known at the office in six or seven years. The outgoing foreign mail was unusually large. The domestic mail is very large also and a very big lot of Christmas gifts is passing through the office.

Still they come—the Christmas buyers to select from the Burgess Fur and Hat Co.'s splendid stock, such lovely and useful gifts as fur shoulder capes, collarettes, muffs, bags, gloves and other fur goods, also dress suit cases, silk umbrellas, etc., and last, but not least, Thibet boas—finest lines in the state.

Beacon Lodge Elects Officers.

At the regular meeting of Beacon Lodge, No. 9, N. E. O. P., last evening, the following officers were elected: Warden, James Johnson; vice warden, Lillian E. Strong; recording secretary, George Wallace; financial secretary, W.
G. Gates; treasurer, Charles C. Sherman; chaplain, E. S. Storer; guide, Charles Brainerd; guardian, Frank Bronson; sentinel, J. Burdick; trustee, Charles Hines; janitor, E. L. Kerr. The installation will take place January 14.
After the election of officers a committee was appointed to make arrangements for a concert and ball to be held at Warner hall February 7. The committee appointed consisted of W. J.
Gates, Charles C. Sherman, James Mustarde, George Wallace, Charles Hines, Mrs. A. E. Brown and Mrs. G. Floyd.

AT ROCKLEDGE, FLORIDA.

Delightful Trip of a New Haven Party on Indian River—The Wonderful Recovery of the Orange Trees.

A party of nine people, consisting of Mr. E. E. Bristol, Ed Bristol, the Misses Bristol, Mrs. E. A. Chatfield, Miss Chatfield and Mrs. Brock of our city and Mr. and Miss Edgerly of Brooklyn, have just returned to the New Rock Lodge hotel after an eight days' trip down the entire length of Indian river to Palm Beach. They speak in glowing terms of the whole country and have brought back many choice specimens of skins, game and gorgeous plumage of tropical birds.

On the morning of the 9th of December the party secured the house boat Rochester and with a good breeze started south from the New Rock Lodge hotel. They visited Fort Pierce, Thousand Islands, Jupiter and Palm Beach, but after visiting all these famous points they decided that game was not so plenty as about Rock Lodge, nor the orange groves to compare in excellence of fruit with those found on Merritt's Island, near Rock Lodge.

The recovery of the orange groves and pineapple plantations from last winter's frost was surprising to them, as they had been told that nowhere in Florida could orange trees be found bearing.

The excellent fruit found on the tables of the New Rock Lodge come from groves a few miles away, and to these groves guests of the house make daily trips and secure fruit direct from the trees.

Every day at sunset tourists return from their hunting and fishing, exhibiting on the lawn bags of ducks and snipe and strings of bass, trout and mullet.

Mr. Horace P. Shores of our city, proprietor, and Mr. H. E. Bemis, manager, of the Lake Monahon Mountain house, are making tourists at the New Rock Lodge feel by the hospitable entertainment and the courtesy shown in furnishing boats, guides, etc., that Rock Lodge should not be passed by the sportsmen or tourists seeking pleasure or rest.

GRAND SALE OF PALMS.

ettes; No. 469, that was $4.48 now $3.98.
Oak that was $2.50 now $2.08. Oak that was $2.48 now $1.98.

Now it's a forest of Center Tables, over 250, no two alike, 69 cents to $4.00.

Those who haven't bought our Blacking Cases, (if there be such an one in New Haven) will find the same prices 50 and 98 cents in the two kinds.

Ladies' Desks of San Domingo Mahogany, 40 designs to choose from, no two alike, lots running low.

Children's Rockers and High Chairs right by the second floor elevator. Lots of designs in all the woods and in steel and rattan, at 45 cents and on up into the dollars.

A very choice line of Foot Stools has just arrived. Beautiful, at 65 cents up.

Reception Chairs go to the wall like this, Tuesday. $3.50 Chairs for $2.98; $4.75 Chairs for $3.98.

No room here for the dozens of other Furniture Novelties we mentioned all last
